FIA World Rally Championship for Manufacturers
FIA World Rally Championship for Drivers
FIA World Rally Championship for Co-Drivers
FIA Super 2000 World Rally Championship for Drivers
FIA Super 2000 World Rally Championship for Co-Drivers

4.2 Criteria for Acceptance of Entries

The maximum number of entrants will be 80 cars. If more than 80 entries are received the acceptance of entries will be at the discretion of the organisers. A reserve list of a maximum of 10 cars will be created.

To enable amateur crews to have the maximum time to prepare for the event, the first 30 eligible amateur entries received will automatically be accepted. The full entry fee must accompany the entry and this can be paid by credit card, cheque or bank transfer.

To be eligible for the amateur category:

- neither crew member may be entered on any priority list by the FIA or MSA for rallies in 2012.
- the vehicle is not the property of a motor manufacturer or importer.
- the entrant does not receive support from a motor manufacturer or importer or related sponsor.
- the vehicle must be entered by one of the crew members.

The organiser's decision on eligibility for this category will be final.

Non-priority drivers will be allocated a service area space of 10m x 10m.

6. Two-way Radio

6.1 Application Procedure

Ofcom is the regulator for the UK communications industries, with responsibilities across television, radio, telecommunications and wireless communications services.

Any radio equipment used by a competitor and/or the associated support teams in the UK, must be covered by a licence issued by Ofcom.

Its operation must be strictly within the terms and conditions of the licence. The installation or use of equipment without a licence, or outside the terms, renders the operator/installer liable to prosecution. Upon conviction the equipment is liable to forfeiture together with fines and/or imprisonment.

Should you have any enquiries about your frequency or equipment requirements please contact:
Ofcom

Riverside House

Fax: +44 (0)20 7981 3333

Email: contact@ofcom.org.uk

Website: www.ofcom.org.uk

6.2 Scrutineering

To ensure that illegal equipment (or unauthorised frequencies) are not used during the rally, Ofcom staff will be inspecting competitors' radio equipment at the pre-event scrutineering and will also be present throughout the event itself to monitor and check radio equipment in the rally cars and service vehicles.

6.3 Airborne and Other Requirements

If your requirements are not met by the above, particularly if you require airborne use, exclusive channels or continuous carrier, you should contact JFMG Ltd who distribute Programme Making and Special Events licences on behalf of the Secretary of State.

Any applications should be received a month prior to the Rally.

7. Import of Vehicles and Spare Parts

7.1 Competitors from the European Union

Competitors coming from the European Union do not need to make any special customs clearance. They may use any vehicle in Great Britain for up to 6 months, provided that the vehicle is not brought with the intention of selling it. All vehicles need to have valid traffic insurance.

Tyres and spare parts can also be imported without clearance.

7.2 Competitors from outside the European Union

Competitors coming from outside the European Union will have to report to customs on their arrival in Great Britain. Please prepare a list of all the tools and equipment you are bringing with you.

Please contact the Customs Service for detailed information.

Telephone +44 (0)20 8929 0152

Website: www.hmrc.gov.uk

8. Helicopters

8.1 Procedure

Full details of the procedures regarding the flying of helicopters during Wales Rally GB will be available from the Rally Office.

9. Spectator Tickets and Hospitality

9.1 Spectator Tickets

To celebrate the 80th anniversary of Rally GB, this year's ticketing is led by a limited-edition 'Gold' pass offer that provides spectators access to all stages, car parks, the qualifying stage and service areas. The pass comes with its own unique gold lanyard, an exclusive key-ring and a complimentary copy of the 80th anniversary DVD. The cost of the Gold Rally Pass will be £130 - far cheaper than buying the tickets individually.

Forest car park tickets are available for advance purchase for £20, or £25 on the day, while tickets to Wednesday's qualifying stage are priced at a mere £15 in advance. In addition, the start and finish ceremonies are free of charge, with the Llandudno start venue also including an autograph signing session, as well as demonstrations and displays to celebrate the 80th running of Rally GB. Kids will still go for a quid for tickets purchased in advance.

As in previous years, most adult tickets will include a copy of the official Wales Rally GB programme (valued at £10), which can be collected throughout the event.

For the latest updates and stage information follow Wales Rally GB on Twitter @walesrallygb, join the conversation at facebook.com/walesrallygb or visit the website walesrallygb.com.

9.2 Hospitality

The best viewing facilities in the stages have been reserved for VIP experiences and hospitality.

This year the offerings will include in-stage hospitality at various points along the route including the Celtic Manor stage. Options are available for groups of two to 200 people.

Prices start at £99 per head and include VIP viewing, on-site parking, programmes and refreshments all provided by corporate hospitality specialist MatchPoint. The team are happy to discuss individual requirements with those looking to entertain clients, friends or family at this iconic international sporting event.

11.2 Accreditation Procedure and Criteria

Accreditation Explanation

Wales Rally GB is round 10 of 13 of the 2012 FIA World Rally Championship and has to apply strict criteria for media accreditation set out by the FIA, the international governing body of motor sport.

Please read the following guidelines carefully and make sure all the information requested is supplied with your accreditation application and it is posted to the appropriate address. Failure to supply the requested information, or to sign the disclaimer, will delay the processing of your application.

Accreditation provides access to the media facilities in Rally HQ and the Service Park in Cardiff and designated areas in Special Stages.

News and information can be supplied, free of charge, before, during and after the event to journalists and publications who are unable to attend the rally, or do not qualify for accreditation.

If you need help with your application please contact:

John Horton, National Press Officer
Tel: +44 (0) 121 378 2828 Email: john@jhmm.co.uk

Accreditation Guidelines

1. International Print Media & Photographers

Applications should be submitted at least 10 working days before the event.

3. Radio / Internet / Electronic Media / Commercial Photographers

Requests from any of the above should be sent direct to the Wales Rally GB Accreditation Manager, using the Radio, Internet, Electronic Media & Commercial Photographers Form which can be downloaded from www.walesrallygb.com.

Wales Rally GB is allowed nominate five (5) national/local radio stations to broadcast from the event. A Maximum of two (2) passes will be issued to each Station.

Applications should be submitted by Friday 10th August 2012 to allow time for approval.

4. United Kingdom Print Media & Photographers

Requests from the above must be sent by POST direct to the Wales Rally GB Accreditation Manager, using the form which can be downloaded from www.walesrallygb.com.

Applications must arrive prior to Friday 10th August 2012.

4.1. Information to be supplied with each application

- a) A formal request for accreditation, written on the publication's official letterhead, signed by a Director of the publication or the Editor.
Requests signed by clerical staff will not be accepted.
- b) A completed Accreditation Form.
- c) Written confirmation of the publications frequency and its circulation or readership figures.
- d) A current and original copy of the publication.
- e) Examples of all published material from 2011 Wales Rally GB, if either the applicant or the publication were accredited.
- f) Requests from freelance Journalists/Photographers must be accompanied by copies of their published work during the last 12 months, specifying the names of the newspapers / magazines in which the work has been published.

NOTE: c) and d) do not apply to major International press agencies.

e) does not apply to publications applying for the first time.

5. Guidelines and Information for Accreditation Applications

- a) Up to a maximum of three (3) representatives per organisation will be considered for accreditation by the FIA.

A separate application form should be submitted for each person to be accredited.

- b) To be accredited, a publication must:

- i) have a circulation size and quality that satisfies the criteria of the FIA.
- ii) be on sale to the public.

- c) Accreditation for Press Photographers: The FIA provides 12 (twelve) photographer Tabards for UK-based Photographers. Priority will be given to national publications and agencies based on circulation, frequency and previous coverage of Wales Rally GB.

- d) Advertising, PR, marketing, or sponsor representatives are not eligible for accreditation.

Once applications have been processed by Wales Rally GB and approved by the FIA, a letter or email confirming successful accreditation will be sent to the applicant(s).

This letter must be produced when collecting passes at the event.

No pass(es) can be collected without this confirmation.
