1. INTRODUCTION

1.1. Welcome

Ladies and gentlemen, dear competitors, dear motorsport fans

It is a great honour for us to welcome you in Sibiu, for the 3rd round of the FIA European Rally Championship (ERC)

Sibiu Rally Romania 2014 will be held, for the first time in his history, in winter, in the last week of February, and that means one thing: a new challenge.

Our target is to change the image of Sibiu Rally from "extremely tough rally" to "one of the most spectacular rally". We hope that our new special stages, which will give you the opportunity to discover the beauties of Transfagarasan and „ASTRA” National Museum Complex, alongside the combination of gravel, tarmac, ice and snow will help us to achieve our goal.

We made huge efforts to prepare everything at the highest level for one of the most important sporting events hosted by Romania in 2014.

We can't forget all the support that Institutions and Sponsors have given to this event, because without them, achieving our goals would have been impossible for us.

Thank you, good luck and have fun.

Sorin Itu – Chairman

14. THE CITY OF SIBIU

The city of Sibiu is one of the most important cities in Transylvania with a remarkable economic development potential, being also advantaged by its positioning on a traffic knot on the fourth Pan European Corridor and enjoying the benefits of an International Airport.

The city is situated at 45°47' Nordic latitude and 24°05' eastern longitude. The altitude compared to the level of the sea varies between 415 meters in the Lower Town and 431 meters in the Upper Town. The city is situated in the temperate continental area, with temperature influences from the nearby mountains. The climate is thus temperate continental with no excesses. The annual average of precipitations is of 662 mm with the lowest values in the month of February (26.7 mm) and the maximum values in June (113 mm).

The average annual temperature is of 8.9 Celsius degrees.

With 155000 permanent inhabitants and 25000 temporary inhabitants, mainly students, Sibiu is the largest city in the county and one of the most important ones in Transylvania.

The local community includes various ethnic groups. The great majority of the population is represented by Romanians (94%) who coexist with Germans, descendants of the Saxon colonists who emigrated in the 17th century from the region where Luxemburg is situated today. Hungarians, Roma and a very small Jewish community also coexist here, all of them contributing to the city life with their specific cultural influences.

The same diversity also characterizes the religious life. Together with the Orthodox community, Reformed, Roman-Catholics and Greek Catholics live and practice their faith in Sibiu.

The social structure of the city is based on the historical existence and multicultural life experience, the diversity of its inhabitants belonging to various ethnic groups, generations and life styles rendering the city a special aura.
