1. Welcome

1.1 Foreword

Rally Italia has been confirmed in Sardinia for the eleventh year in a row and is holding a strong position inside the world championship panorama. This is not a surprise to us, knowing the qualities of our event and those of the persons working all year long with passion and professionalism to carry it out. A good race, technical and difficult, immersed in a unique territory, for its beauty and landscape variety, a race that has always put drivers and spectators safety in the first place.

As usual the event proposes innovations. In this edition too, even if there are important changes compared to the past, tradition still plays an important role. Being the quality of the route the main theme, proposing again some stages which made this rally famous around the world, the rally aims to reach another important target: meet spectators. This will not change the structure of the event, largely appreciated, but will provide it with a unique frame.

The rally revealed all its secrets already. The countdown of the 2014 edition has started. Sardinia, land of great passion and hospitality, is ready, as usual, to welcome with enthusiasm the varied peoples of the international rallies.

To all men and women of the FIA, to all drivers, teams, mechanics, to national and international media, to fans coming from Italy and abroad, my warmest welcome.

I'd like to greet Region Sardinia, essential partner in the accomplishment of Rally Italia Sardegna, all local authorities and all those who will watch over the proper carrying out of the race.

Angelo Sticchi Damiani
President of Automobile Club d'Italia

1.2 Event's presentation

2014 Rally Italia Sardegna, scheduled from June 5th to 8th, and for the eleventh time to be run in the Sardinia region, changes skin.

Head Quarter of the event will be Alghero, and the route proposes some new stages near this antique town with Catalan origins, and near Sassari, besides the traditional stages in the unspoiled environment of the hinterland rich in luxuriant woods, looked after by Ente Foreste della Sardegna (Sardinia Forests Department). An important and new role will be played by Cagliari. The capital town of Sardinia will host the Ceremonial Start and one special stage to be run in town that will start the four-days-event of the World Rally Championship in Sardinia.

The Head Quarter, Alghero, will host the Ceremonial Start near the town Rampart, and the Main Service Park along the quay of the tourist port, the "ramblas" of the Bousquets walk and Piazzale della Pace (Square of the Peace) located in the centre of the town.

Alghero has over 40.000 inhabitants and is known also as "little Barcelona" since it maintained the use of the Catalan language. The 22.4% of the inhabitants speak the Alghero version of the Catalan language, which has been recognized by the Italian Republic and the Sardinia Region as an official minority language. Alghero host an institutional delegation of the Generalitat de Catalunya, the regional government of Catalonia.

Alghero is one of the doors to Sardinia, thanks to the commercial harbour of Porto Torres and the airport Alghero-Riviera del Corallo, located 10 km north of the town and open to both national and international flights, with approximately 3.5 millions passengers every year. The Head Quarter of 2014 Rally Italia Sardegna, is the main town of the Riviera del Corallo (Coral Riviera), name that derives from the fact that in its bay there is the highest quantity of the most precious red coral, that specialized divers still pick up. The coral working and sell played an important economic and cultural role for centuries and still does.
