1. Welcome

1.1 Foreword

Thirteen years gone by since Rally Italia landed in Sardinia and many considered it a difficult project, that wouldn't last too long and that would not be able to guarantee this event to remain in the WRC Championship.

Since then there were years of hard work, years that have seen in the front row the Automobile Club d'Italia, and me as its President, committed not only to save the WRC validity, but to make everyone understand that this was a big project, which had turned into an extraordinary event, one of the world's best as far as concern technical qualities, definitely the best as far as the beauty of the places and the logistics in general.

An important undertaking that saw us always accompanied by Region Sardinia that, in all these years, never failed to give its essential support, and by a group of local enthusiasts who have contributed, with their knowledge and their professionalism, to give strength to the race. With them also the local Institutions that supported us with suggestions and information.

On the eve of this new edition I can only express my heartfelt thanks to all those who help make this race a major event of sport, culture, tourism. A welcome finally to fans, drivers, teams and professionals in general. For many will be a coming back looking for unique sensations that they've already tried, for others a discovery and a new way to experience this wonderful sport that sees them still starring in their respective roles.

To All the Automobile Club d'Italia give its warmest welcome.
