1. WELCOME

1.1. Introduction

Dear friends,

A fifteen-year anniversary is not something we take lightly in Mexico. Traditionally, girls have their fifteenth birthday celebrated in glorious form. It is their rite of passage into womanhood. Families gather and commemorate the occasion with grand fanfare. It is the first time a girl is presented to society with makeup and high heels, dressed in the most beautiful dress she desires. It is called a “Quinceañera” ball.

This year, Rally Mexico will run as a round of the World Rally Championship for the fifteenth time.

When we started this adventure, back in 1998, rallying was virtually unknown in the country. A handful of clubs organized the National Championship with weekend amateur drivers, with practically no coverage in the news.

So, we had to start from scratch. For four years we ran candidate events, improving year upon year. A group of 10 or more of us travelled to Europe to work with the organizations of WRC events to learn from them, and understand the inner workings of rallies of such magnitude. We went to Finland, Spain, GB, and others, learning as much as we could. We always hosted a Mexican party at each event and invited the media and the teams, to make as much noise as possible, trying to get the WRC to notice us.

And then, it happened. 2004. We were IN. Excited, scared, unproven, but finally our dream had come true: Rally Mexico was announced as the 3rd round of The World Rally Championship.

We thought we'd made it.

It took the better part of ten years for the Mexican media to understand the magnitude of the Championship, and just as long for our sponsors to believe in us and share our vision, but eventually we did make it. We've survived, and we've grown up. 15 years have passed and now we're ready to be part of society, all dressed up and stepping into adulthood. Just like a “Quinceañera”.

We couldn't have gotten here without the selfless effort of thousands of Volunteers, of the companies that have sponsored us, and of the government officials that have supported us through thick and thin. To all of them, we are deeply grateful.

We are here now, we've earned our place, and now we're ready to step up.

Welcome to Guanajuato!
Welcome to Mexico!

The Organising Committee

1.2. Environmental Policy

Rally Mexico is celebrating 15 years in the WRC, which makes it the longest-running world championship level motorsport event in the country.

Throughout the years, our defining characteristic has been innovation. This tradition drives us towards improving the environmental sustainability of the event, and the region as a whole.

Our main objective is the control of residues generated during the event. Because of this, our organization will keep up its awareness promotion program, as well as a new recycling program for selected products.

We will continue to work in areas previously identified as worthy of special attention in our EMS:

- Residue management: We have produced and presented a plan based on national best practices. Beginning with unified collection in all areas where the Rally takes place (in the past, it had been done separately by individual municipalities), to be followed by a tally of the residues collected, and their tracking as they are channeled through the recycling process.
- Coordination with environmental authorities: We seek to actively cooperate with state-level environmental institutions to identify future priorities for our EMS. This year we have submitted a request for registration as a “Generator Authorized for Special Handling” to the Ecology Institute of the State of Guanajuato, being the first event ever to do so.
- Carbon footprint: We have improved the collection of data for our event’s carbon footprint calculation in the following areas:
 - Aerial transportation
 - Sea transportation
 - Land transportation
 - Organizers’ cars
 - Competing cars
 - Electricity generation
 - Visitors
- Energy consumption: We remain committed to reducing our energy consumption through the redesign of our Rally Campus and our application of sustainable technologies.
- Paper waste: From post-event reporting, planning, and daily administration, to operations during rally week, we will use technological alternatives to paper as much as possible within FIA regulations.
- Human resources: It is very important for everyone in the organization to be made aware of our actions for environmental preservation and improvement.

Our Environmental Policy and EMS will be reviewed and updated yearly, as part of our commitment to the principle of continual improvement.

1.3. History

Rally America, later known as Corona Rally Mexico and now Rally Guanajuato Mexico, was created in 1979 through a co-operation by the two largest clubs in Mexico: Club Automovilístico Francés de México (CAF) and the Rally Automovil Club (RAC). Both clubs have a long history of sporting competition, so their collaboration was a big step forward for rallying in the country. It was originally hosted in the State of Mexico and ran continuously until 1985.

After an absence of six years, the event ran again in 1991 and followed the route of El Paso de Cortés, between two of Mexico's largest volcanoes. Following the cancellation of the 1992 edition of the event, the CAF opted for a different concept: a short rally with a high percentage of special stages. The result was the very successful 1993 edition that was held in Valle de Bravo.

The Organising Committee then took over the running of the Rally de las 24 Horas, the CAF's flagship event, and, for this reason, Rally America was not staged again until 1996, when the internationalization of the project began.

The CAF and its new promoting partner, Rallymex, moved the event to the US border in Ensenada, Baja California, for two years, where it started to attract international entries.

In 1998, the organizers decided to rename the event and move it to León, Guanajuato. With a long-term business plan focusing on inclusion in the World Rally Championship in place, the event ran again in 1999 and 2000, stepping up a gear each year. From 2001 to 2003, the organizers went for observation by the FIA, successfully running the event on each occasion.

The 2003 Corona Rally Mexico - the 17th in the history of the rally - proved to be the crucial turning point. New facilities at the Poliforum Expo Center were groundbreaking in the sport and this, combined with one of the most compact routes ever, put the event firmly in frame for World Championship status. A total of 45 crews representing 11 countries crossed the start ramp in Guanajuato during one of the most spectacular opening ceremonies seen in the sport.

Corona Rally Mexico made its debut in the expanded 16-round World Rally Championship of the 2004 season, running successfully as the third round of the series and implementing a raft of regulation changes introduced by the FIA for the season.

Since then, Rally Guanajuato México has been set as the first full gravel event of the championship.

The event has consistently maintained its signature format of a compact route with a high percentage of long Special Stages.

1.5. Rally Guanajuato México - 2017 Edition

The Citroën Total Abu Dhabi World Rally Team's Kris Meeke and Paul Nagle confirmed victory in Rally Guanajuato Corona in Mexico, despite one of the most thrilling finales to an event in the history of the FIA World Rally Championship.

Appearing comfortable at the start of the final Power Stage with a lead of 37.2 seconds, Meeke got caught out by a bump on a fast right bend and found himself in a car park full of spectators' vehicles. Quick thinking by navigator Paul Nagle outlined an escape route and the C3 WRC driver regained the track and powered through the stage finish to claim the win by just 13.8 seconds.

The Ulsterman duly sealed his fourth career WRC win after previous victories in Argentina (2015) and Portugal and Finland in 2016. The result also marked the third different manufacturer to take the top step of the podium in as many events, following M-Sport Ford's win in Monte Carlo and Toyota's success in Sweden.

Sébastien Ogier's consolation for finishing second overall in his M-Sport Ford Fiesta WRC was the outright lead in the World Championship. His result also enabled the M-Sport World Rally Team to extend their advantage in the Manufacturers' series.

Thierry Neuville had been tipped by many people to win in Mexico, but Hyundai Motorsport had not envisaged the simple fuel filter issues that plagued all three of their i20 Coupes on the opening gravel stages on Friday. Once that issue was rectified and tyre choice also came into play, Neuville was too far behind the leading duo to make an impression and the Belgian reached the finish in third place, the fastest time on the Power Stage giving him valuable bonus points.

Neither M-Sport's Ott Tänak nor Hyundai's Hayden Paddon had the pace to match the top three over the duration of the three days, but Tänak claimed one fastest stage time and both drivers were able to pick up valuable championship points for finishing fourth and fifth overall.

Both Juho Hänninen and Jari-Matti Latvala were under instructions from team principal Tommi Mäkinen to bring the two struggling Toyota GAZOO World Rally Team Yaris WRCs to the finish. The Finn had underestimated the development work needed to be competitive at altitude in Mexico and a viral infection for Hänninen hadn't helped matters either. Latvala used the closing stages to gather data for team engineers and, even though the duo were only separated by 0.3 seconds at the start of the final day, Latvala came through to finish sixth.

Dani Sordo lost his chance of challenging for a podium at the two super special stages on Friday evening, but the Spaniard set a couple of fastest times for Hyundai Motorsport on Saturday and was an impressive force once the i20 Coupe's early niggles had been rectified. He finished eighth and Welshman Elfyn Evans was ninth, his Mexican challenge running aground even before the start when M-Sport were forced to change the Fiesta's engine after the shakedown stage at the cost of a five-minute penalty.

There may only have been five registered WRC 2 drivers in Rally Mexico 2017 but Skoda's Pontus Tidemand and M-Sport's Eric Camilli produced one of the most fascinating duels in the history of the support series. Fractions of a second separated the duo for much of Saturday after Tidemand had controlled proceedings on the first gravel stages on Friday.

The Swede managed to eke out a two-second lead to take into the final morning and a crushing performance in La Calera - where he was 22.5 seconds quicker than his rival - settled the contest in his favour and gave him the outright WRC 2 lead. "It was a great battle and a good rally for me," said Tidemand.

Mexico's Benito Guerra was plagued by brake problems, a puncture and a general lack of kilometres behind the wheel. But he delighted the home crowds by rounding off the podium places. "This is not a bad result for me. A podium finish on my first event in WRC 2 and good points for the championship," said an upbeat Guerra.

18.1.5. Principles for accreditation, documentation and photographers

A) Principles

- a) A maximum of three representatives (journalists or photographers) per publication will be accredited.
- b) A publication will need to comply with the distribution and quality established by the FIA, and be for sale to the public. Internal and club publications cannot be accredited as media outlets. Accreditation decisions are based on the market of the requesting country.
- c) Promoters of any kind, such as PR or marketing personnel, cannot be accredited as media representatives.
- d) Private teams with established drivers may apply for accreditation for a media representative directly to the FIA Media Delegate.
- e) Central and local offices of large international press agencies (AP, AFP, Reuters, ANSA, UPI, DPA, LUSA, BELGA, JIJI, KYODO, EFE, Press Association, SAPA, Australian AP, APA, etc) will always be accredited directly by the FIA.

B) Required documentation for each request

- a) An accreditation request on the publication's official stationery, signed by the Managing Director or Editorial Director.
- b) The name(s) and charge of the representatives who will cover the event.
- c) General information about the publication, such as frequency and distribution.
- d) Official ID (INE, passport, driver's license) of the people interested in the accreditation.
- e) Testimonials of material published about Rally Mexico 2017 or the FIA World Rally Championship.
- f) Any request by a freelance journalist must be accompanied by a list of articles published during the previous 12 months, including the publication name and date.

Late or incomplete requests will not be considered.

C) Accreditation for photographers

National Press Photographers

The number of passes for National Press Photographers is limited by the FIA to 12.

International Press Photographers

Publications or agencies seeking accreditation for a single WRC event must provide proof of independent coverage in the form of at least 15 photographs per pass taken of each event where they attended as accredited media during the previous year.

In the case of an agency, the pictures must have been sold at regular commercial prices to publications that comply with FIA criteria.

For publications, the published pictures must be demonstrated to be original work by the author accredited by the publication.

Commercial/promotional photographers

Commercial or promotional photographers may request accreditation to accreditation@wrc.com

18.2. Media Center

The Media Center, Accreditation Office and Manufacturers' Room will be located in the Expo-Feria building in Rally Campus. The Media Center will be located in the same building as 2017.

Please refer to point 2.3 of this Guide for Media contact information.

Only accredited media will be afforded access to the Media Center.

18.3. Telecommunications

Ethernet and WI-FI connections are available (ISDN is not supported in México) and technicians will be available during the event to assist if necessary.

GSM, 3G and 4G are widely available in México, but please check with your national provider about the availability of your own roaming service within the country. Do note however, that roaming charges can be considerably more expensive than hiring locally. As a general rule, coverage in the stages is intermittent.

Courtesy Ethernet lines and WI-FI communications will be available for the media (press room) and photographers (wire sending area) for business use only.

Dialing in México to and from land and mobile phones can be very confusing. Please refer to the table in the General Information section of this guide.

19. PASSES AND PLATES

Passes and Car Passes will be issued by the Organizers to ensure proper access to the Rally Campus areas. A detailed access table will be published in Rally Guide 2.

Car access will be controlled by gate identification. Service and Auxiliary vehicles will only be afforded access through specific gates and access points throughout Rally Campus.

21.1. México

Our country is the natural link between the United States and Latin America. And, through the signing of 12 trade treaties that grant a preferred access to 44 countries - among them the North American Free Trade Agreement with the U.S. and Canada, as well as those signed with the European Union, Chile, Brazil and Argentina - México has access to a potential market of more than 860 million consumers and is consolidating itself as one of the most important emerging economies in the world. (Mexico)

21.2. León & Guanajuato

Guanajuato is one of the best-communicated states in México, with a complete network of roads. Its rail network is located in the area of confluence of the main trade routes of the country, and by air it is well connected to the main destinations in México and the United States.

León is the biggest city in the State of Guanajuato, with 1.6 million inhabitants, and the fifth biggest city in México. Over 50 million people live within 400 km of León, including the populations of México City and the State of México.

León is near three of the most important tourist and colonial cities in México: Guanajuato, a UNESCO World Heritage Site; Dolores Hidalgo, the birthplace of the National Independence, and San Miguel de Allende, one of the most popular tourist and colonial cities visited by foreigners.

Guanajuato City, the capital of the State of Guanajuato and venue for the start of Rally Guanajuato México, is considered to be the most beautiful colonial city in the Americas and owes its fame to rich veins of silver and gold discovered by the Spanish centuries ago. It is one of the most important cities in the country, both traditionally and culturally. Old world charm lures visitors from around the world, and strolling minstrels, known as "estudiantinas", enrich the medieval atmosphere with music from a bygone era. The extensive underground tunnels and walkways also make Guanajuato a beautifully unique and captivating city. Construction of the Teatro Juárez, began in 1873 and it was finally opened in 1903 by President Porfirio Díaz. It is one of the most beautiful theatres in México with a variety of architectural styles.

León's pre-Hispanic legacy can be seen in its architecture, monuments and parks. Founded in 1576, it is now a modern urban centre with the extensive infrastructure, good public safety, universities, transportation and roads necessary for accelerated development.

León is well known for its infrastructure and organizational capabilities for any kind of international event. The city not only has excellent infrastructure for international events, including its convention center (CONEXPO), but also offers a wide range of services like theatres, museums, restaurants, recreational centers, hotels, shopping and financial centers beyond comparison in central México.

Guanajuato's shoe and leather sector is the biggest in the country, since it contributes 50 per cent of the total national production. It also has a complete infrastructure of hotel services and of purveyors for the fair and exposition industries. Furthermore, in close proximity to the city via excellent roads, visitors can access historical places like Guanajuato, San Miguel de Allende and Dolores Hidalgo. León is linked directly to other political and economical centers in México via road and air. As a platform to launch commercialization or production strategies, León offers the best infrastructure and unquestionable capacity as tourism, commercial and business center.

In recent times, the state has emerged as a new industrial powerhouse, which has seen huge investment in medium and heavy industry, including aerospace production, and more relevantly for the Rally, in the automotive sector, which has seen global giants such as Toyota, VW, Ford, Honda, Mazda and GM open manufacturing operations in the state, bringing along their whole supply chains and creating thousands of well-paid jobs in the process.

21.3. Tips From A to Z

AIRPORTS

It is not possible to take baggage carts out of the arrivals hall at México City airport, although there are porters to assist with luggage. A tip will be expected. It is also wise to reconfirm all flights in advance.

Be aware that flights with stops in the US will require travellers to have US Visas or an ESTA registration for certain country nationals which takes about 4 days to have approved (<https://esta.cbp.dhs.gov/esta/>). No transit status is awarded within US airports.

León Airport: Aeropuerto Internacional de Guanajuato (BJX) 24 Km

Mexico City Airport: Aeropuerto Internacional Ciudad de México / Benito Juárez (MEX) 382 Km

Queretaro Airport: Aeropuerto Intercontinental de Querétaro (QRO) 201 Km

Guadalajara Airport: Miguel Hidalgo y Costilla Guadalajara International Airport (GDL) 231 Km

BANKS & CREDIT CARDS

Banks are generally open from 09:00-16:00 hrs Monday to Friday and a few from 09:00-13:00 hrs on Saturday. All international credit cards (Visa, Master Card and American Express) are commonly accepted in major cities (Guanajuato and León).

Most Automatic Teller Machines (ATM) are open 24 hours a day and can be found curbside in banks, some hotel lobbies and shopping centers. Small businesses in small towns will not take credit cards.

Changing Travelers' Checks is best done in the morning, as a number of banks will not accept them after 14:00hrs. A passport is also required. For the most favorable rates, change money through banks.

It is somewhat difficult to exchange European currencies in Guanajuato (including the Euro). The US Dollar is more easily accepted and exchanged.

BARGAINING

Bargaining is common practice in tourist areas where quoted prices can often be double the value of the goods. In smaller towns away from the tourist sites, bargaining is not recommended as it can be seen as a lack of civility.

BEHAVIOUR

Basically it is not difficult to act respectably in México; in general people are friendly and quite informal. As with travel to any foreign country, friendliness and a desire to respect local customs is appreciated.

CLIMATE

The climate is typically tropical, although varies in the different regions of the country. March is the dry season and normally warm and windy. Occasionally, short tropical rains can be followed by warm sunshine and 30°C temperatures, while the altitude in Guanajuato can see temperatures drop below 10°C at night.

CLOTHING

Although dress code is not an issue in México, we do not suggest any liberal attire.

CURRENCY

The local currency is the Mexican Peso and approximate exchange rates are (November 16th 2017):

1 € =	22.48 MX Pesos
1 GBP =	25.19 MX Pesos
1 US$ =	19.04 MX Pesos

Notes in circulation are: 20, 50, 100, 200 and 500 pesos. Coins in use are 0.10, 0.20, 0.50, 1, 2, 5, and 10 pesos. You should be aware that 1 and 2 pesos coins are similar and can be confused. Also, there are two different types of 0.20 and 0.50 peso coins in circulation, so attention should be paid to the denomination.

CUSTOMS

All things of personal use do not incur duty. Other articles are allowed with some limitations: 2 liters of alcohol, souvenirs and gifts not exceeding USD$ 300. Foreign currency is limited to USD$ 10,000 or equivalent without declaration.

DOCTOR

A branch of the Aranda de la Parra Hospital will be open and on-call in the Service Park during Rally HQ opening hours.

HQ Emergency number: +52 477 771-1144

DRIVING

Cars are left-hand drive in México and you drive on the right side of the road. Remain aware of possible road hazards such as animals crossing, potholes and the omnipresent speed reducer bumps called "TOPES". The right of passage in corners and roundabouts is not observed in México City and surrounding areas and usually the biggest, or the bravest, goes first. In León, nonetheless, stop signs are "mostly" respected and the roundabout traffic has always the right of way.

The speed limit in towns is 40 km/h and is indicated everywhere else by road signs. Highway speeds can vary between 80 to 110 km/h. Speed limits are usually posted. Carry your Driving License at all times. Wearing seat belts is compulsory throughout the country. Mobile phones are not to be used while driving. Hands-free is permitted.

Be aware that the Mexico City Metropolitan Area (comprising Mexico City and several neighbouring states) has a compulsory program called "Hoy No Circula", which prohibits portions of the motor vehicle pool from being driven on specific days based on plate numbers. Only locally registered cars having passed an emissions test are exempt. Non-exempt cars found circulating on forbidden days can be towed by police and heavy fines imposed. The system is somewhat complicated, so when renting a car, make sure to ask the staff about how it applies to your vehicle.

ELECTRICITY

The electrical current in México is 110 volts (60 Hz) and sockets accept plugs with two flat parallel pins (American specification). Most laptop computers operate equally on 110 or 220 volts and only require a travel plug adaptor.

ELEVATION

The mean elevation of the city of León is 1,786 meters above sea level (5,860 ft). The elevation of the special stages varies from 1,800 to 2,737 meters above sea level.

FESTIVALS

Mexicans celebrate a number of festivals and seasonal events throughout the year and it is worthy of note if planning a vacation. Any festivals or holidays during the week of the rally will be notified in advance.

GAS STATIONS

Gas stations (PEMEX) are normally open 07:00-22:00 hrs, although those in major cities tend to be open 24 hours. You should tip the attendant approximately 10 pesos. All gas stations are full-service and maximum prices are fixed by the government throughout the country (November 17, 2017).

- Premium grade (Red pump) is 93 octane (R+N/2) at $ 18.48 pesos / liter (€ 0.82)
- Magna grade (Green pump) is 87 octane (R+N/2) at $ 16.74 pesos / liter (€ 0.74)
- Diesel #2 (Black pump) at $17.67 pesos / liter (€ 0.79)

NOTE: Credit Cards are not always accepted. Please check with attendant before refuelling.

Always check that the pump has been reset (zero reading) before refuelling.

LANGUAGE

The official language in México is Spanish although many dialects are still used in different regions. English is spoken in most hotels and tourist destinations. Most members of the Organizing Committee speak good English.

MEDICINE

Many international brands can be found in pharmacies. (Please note that some brand names are different: Maalox to Melox, Zantac to Azantac etc...) However, it is always wise to take an adequate amount of your personal medicines with you.

MOCTEZUMA'S REVENGE

Food in hotels and good restaurants is safe. Be aware that spicy dishes are common in menus and can be VERY spicy. Foreign visitors should avoid “roadside” restaurants and sub-par eateries. Many visitors get sick by not sticking to this simple rule. Mexicans call it “Moctezuma’s Revenge”.

Pre-packaged snacks are safe to eat. (Marinela, Bimbo, Sabritas, Barcel) (See WATER, below)

OPENING HOURS

Most shops are open from 09:00 to 18:00 hrs Monday to Saturday. Major department stores or shopping malls open from 10:00 to 20:00 hrs seven days a week. In small towns some shops close for lunch from 14:00 to 16:00 hrs. Please note that in México, normal lunchtime is from 14:00hrs to 16:00hrs.

PHOTOGRAPHY

México is a colourful country to photograph. It is of course polite to ask permission before photographing people. Pictures in some temples are forbidden, and should never be taken during a ceremony.

POPULATION

The total population of México is 130 million, 5.8 million of whom live in the State of Guanajuato and 1.4 million in León. 29.3% of the country’s population is under 14 and 9.2% is over 60.

PROTECTION

The high altitude and gentle cool winds mean sunburn can happen surprisingly quickly. Sunscreen (SPF 50+), a hat, sunglasses and long sleeve shirts are greatly recommended. Every year, several team workers have been treated for first and second-degree sunburns. Please be careful and follow these simple recommendations.

SAFETY

Special caution must be taken when in México City. Avoid unauthorized airport taxis and ask the hotel concierge for any special safety tips around the area you’ll be staying. When in León, normal safety behavior is recommended.

Please, DO NOT leave computer or photography equipment in unattended cars. The most sophisticated robbers use sensor equipment which can detect radio frequency emissions from laptops, cell phones and other electronics transmitting data wirelessly (wi-fi, Bluetooth, cellular data, etc), which they emit even in sleep mode. Leaving equipment in the trunk or hidden under seats is not a good enough preventive strategy.

Photo equipment is specially targeted during rally week. Please use caution in stages and do not wander alone in isolated areas.

TELEPHONE

National and regional telephone codes to landlines and mobile numbers can be confusing. Please refer to the dialling table in section 21.6.

GSM and CDMA are widely available in México, but please check with your national provider about the availability of roaming agreements within the country. As a general rule, coverage in the mountains, with a mobile telephone, is intermittent. Cellular reception levels are indicated with icons in the Road Books.

TIME

México extends over three time zones. The zone in which the rally will take place is at GMT - 6 hrs. (Mexico City – Guanajuato)

TIPPING

Tipping is common practice in México and can get you a long way. Normal tipping in restaurants is 10-15% while porters, taxi drivers, parking and gas station attendants will expect about 20 pesos.

WATER

Tap water is not recommended for drinking. Most hotels provide bottled water in the room at no charge. Soft drinks, bottled water and juices are commonly available and safe to drink.

21.6. Telephone Dialing

The Mexican phone dialing system is similar to the US system:

The country is divided into Local Area Codes (LAC) represented in parenthesis called LADA in México.

Dialing from, or to, mobiles (GSM, Digital and Analogue) can be VERY confusing. Please do not hesitate to ask for assistance.

Please note that "LAC + number" is always 10 digits (XX) XXXX XXXX or (XXX) XXX XXXX

To dial internationally from México, dial: 00 + country code + number

Important Local Area Codes:

México (Country Code):.....	52	Silao and Airport:	472
México City:	55	Guanajuato City:	473
Guadalajara:	33	León:	477
Tampico:	833	Veracruz	229

Dialing from:	Using:	To:	Dial:
outside México	any system	any city in México	+52 + LAC + number
outside México	any system	a mobile in México (any)	+52 + 1 + LAC + number
México	a GSM mobile	anywhere in México (incl. mobiles)	+52 + LAC + number
México	a land line	a land line in a different LAC	01 + LAC + number
México	a land line	the same LAC (land line)	number
México	a local mobile	a mobile in the same LAC	LAC + number
México	a local mobile	a mobile in a different LAC	LAC + number
México	a land line	a mobile in the same LAC	044 + LAC + number
México	a land line	a mobile in a different LAC	045 + LAC + number

TIP: From GSM phones, the best way to call anyone (land or mobile) within Mexico, is dialing in the international format:

+52 XXX XXX XXXX

If you want to call a mobile in Mexico from outside the country, you have to add a '1' after the country code:

+52 1 XXX XXX XXXX
