

RALLY GUIDE 2

20
20 | ALGHERO
OCTOBER
8-11

1. INTRODUCTION - WELCOME

1.1 INTRODUCTION

This year will not be and cannot be an edition like the others for the Rally Italia Sardegna. It will not be so for everything that has happened, in this season still conditioned by the pandemic triggered by Covid 19, and it will not be possible because everything, beyond the enchanting place of development, the Sardinia Region, will be different although, thanks to the minister of Sport Vincenzo Spadafora, even road racing, such as rally, will be able to begin to open its doors to fans.

The Automobile Club of Italy, its women and men, was in fact asked for a further effort this year, that of extraordinary but above all careful management to ensure that everything takes place within the health rules developed by the International Federation of Motorsport, based on the rules dictated by the individual National Governments.

But it will also be a different edition for the public, the very hot Sardinian spectators and also those who usually came from all over the world. At this moment, more than ever, we have asked for the collaboration of true rally enthusiasts and to make sure that everything can take place in the best way, giving an example to the world of great intelligence and sportsmanship.

A special season, therefore, but one that, on an international level, rewards the Automobile Club of Italy as the Italian Federation of Motoring Sports as never before. The role of Italy in the world of engines is strengthened with ours which has become, also this sector, the country of reference for all, both for how the moment of crisis was dealt with and for how the delicate phase of the restart was managed. The three Formula 1 Grand Prix, awarded to our country, the confirmation of the Rally Italia Sardegna, the execution of all the other most important races in each discipline was a confirmation of the great work done. We have done a lot but there is still a lot to do in a year that will still have to give us a lot of satisfaction.

For what has happened and for what will still have to happen, I must naturally thank the FIA President Jean Todt and all the members of the International Federation of Motorsport, who have found in us a strong ally to make a very complicated season go on in the best possible way.

The RIS is therefore about to experience a new intense page in its history and as usual it will do so thanks and above all to the help of the Sardinia Region which once again was an indispensable companion in the construction of the event.

With it I also want to thank all the Local Authorities, the Police Forces, and all those who, as usual, will be on the front line, men and women of the medical aid, of the radio services. Finally, a special greeting to our Route Marshals, figures that too often are not taken into consideration properly, called this year to a further hard work.

My greetings and thanks go to everyone.

Angelo Sticchi Damiani
President of Automobile Club d'Italia
