Welcome

Last year the best rally drivers of Europe raced here again after 16 long years.

It was an awesome race, because on the one hand it was won by Frigyes Turán, a Hungarian driver, and on the other hand, Chris Ingram claimed European Championship title on the Hungarian stages and restored his faith in victory had he lost the junior title in a very tight battle.

There was never any question about keeping on with the race, and however, with regard to the world pandemic situation races were cancelled one after another in Europe, all parties, the city of Nyíregyháza, the sponsors, and both the international and national promoters, were committed to organize Rally Hungary.

We have been working on since the beginning of the year, and that work, such as rally itself, has been full of improvisation and adjustment. Firstly, we have to harmonize the Hungarian specifications with the FIA regulations, secondly, we have to coordinate our race with the regulations of the current pandemic situation.

During the ERC race we will take the field to beautiful places again this year as well: besides Nyíregyháza, the participants can experience the Hungarian hospitality even in the Tokaj wine region.

Similarly to last year's race we can expect spectacular fights and big battles on the special stages that will definitely have positive impact on the race. There is nothing more exciting than watching drivers to push their limit.

In Hungary rally has a huge tradition with numerous fans, who love and also understand the sport. It drove us to organize the race with fans around, certainly complying strictly with the pandemic regulations.

We hope to have many fans alongside the stages of European quality, where we try to provide them with the best possible services. At the spectators' points we will wait for the fans with information and services, that is top priority for us, and we fully trust that they can leave the Hungarian leg of the European Championships with lifelong experiences.

On behalf of Rally Hungary team I wish safe drive to the competitors and good time to the fans.

Tamás Őry,
Hungarian promoter of Rally Hungary
