Dear motors sport fans,

Rally Islas Canarias belongs to one of the most important motorsport events in Spain, the rally will go for its 45th edition. The tradition of this event is closely connected to very high popularity of rallying in this country.

This rally, which has the base in Gran Canaria island, has been developed during the years up to the top of the motorsport scene in Spain and every year it's been the pioneer with introducing new features and innovations to the rallying sport. Since 2016 the rally has been a part exclusive serial of European Rally Championship promoted by Eurosport Events. With this step the quality of the rally rose up.

The HQ as well as the start and finish ramp are located in the centre of Las Palmas city. The whole rally action will be launched with scrutineering held in the Gran Canaria Arena stadium in the afternoon on Thursday, November 18th. Next morning, crews can prove their cars on shakedown track in Telde, the evening, the rally will start with the remarkable Ceremonial Start. Upcoming Friday and Saturday will be fulfilled with competition on 194,59 kilometres of tarmac stages.

The Media center will be again located in the main building of the Gran Canaria Arena.

The host city of Las Palmas is lying in the North west of Gran Canaria and is surrounded with the marvellous long beaches of Las Canteras, the singularity of this golden sand beach resides fundamentally in its bar, a calcareous reef more than 100.000 years old, the bar almost covers 3100 meters, and Las Alcaravaneras, a natural beach visited throughout the year, by the residents of the city

It's 25 km far from the Airport and 56 km from the south, in the Island's popular tourist area, and next to the Dunes of Maspalomas Special Nature Reserve, a unique collection of ecosystems protected by law since 1987. The dunes have also been the backdrop to some well-known TV shows and films like Netflix's "The Witcher" or "Clash of the Titans".

Gran Canaria is one of those extraordinary places brimming with archaeological, ethnographic, artistic and natural treasures of worldwide importance. Some places stand out for their nature. In others, their historical or artistic legacy shines particularly brightly. There are also sites recognised the world over for their traditions. And finally, there are lands that seem to practically have it all. Gran Canaria forms part of this select list of places that really stand out for a full array of wonders.

1 INTRODUCTION – WELCOME

Brief event history

Rally El Corte Inglés | Rally de Canarias | Rally Islas Canarias

The history of the Rally Islas Canarias begins after the summer of 1977. Its first edition was held at the beginning of November and its name responded to the same as that of a shopping center that was going to settle on the island of Gran Canaria that same year: Rally El Corte Inglés. This is how it was called until 2001, its 25th anniversary edition.

In 1977, motor racing began to gain weight in this territory on the shores of the Atlantic Ocean, after the activity was resumed at the beginning of 1972 after a sudden stop of almost 5 years.

That first edition, with only six special stages, saw the triumph of Medardo Pérez-Juan J. Alonso, who with a BMW 2002 Alpina they repeated the following year. They were the first steps of an event that fans began to take into account.

In 1979, coinciding with its third edition, Rally El Corte Inglés took its first qualitative leap. It became part of the Spanish Championship and the international label began to have a presence. Marc Etchebers-Christine Etchebers won that year and in 1980, always at the wheel of a Porsche.

Beni Fernández-José Salas and Eugenio Ortiz, first with Guillermo Barreras and later with Ramón Mínguez, put the Spanish color back on the list, just as world motorsport entered the era of Group B. At that moment, it is worth mention the 1984 edition, in which Terry Kaby-Kevin Gormley (Nissan 240 RS) gave a generous show on roads completely flooded with water and mud.

Carlos Sainz, recordman

In 1985 the one who is, to this day, the most important Spanish driver of all time, landed for the first time in Gran Canaria. The madrilenian dominated the event in his five participations, specifically, until 1989. Antonio Boto first and Luis Moya later, accompanied him in a series of successes that they shared inside cars such as the Renault 5 Tour de Corse, the Renault Maxi 5 Turbo, the Ford Sierra RS Cosworth and the Toyota Celica GT-Four.

In addition to those five consecutive victories, Sainz has other important references. To this day, he still the youngest winner, as well as being the driver with most best times in the special stages.

European championship

Sainz's era coincided with the growth of the rally in the FIA European Rally Championship (FIA ERC), where he had entered in 1982. Climbing the steps each season, the event managed to establish itself at the coefficient 10 for several years, that is, the step prior to reaching the top in this contest.

This invited a good number of international teams to fix their passage through the canarian rally. This is the case of Fabrizio Tabaton-Maurizio Imerito, Pierto Liatti-Luciano Tedeschini or Gustavo Trelles-Jorge del Buono. The three took advantage of different generations of the Lancia Delta to achieve success and, incidentally, take over from Josep Bassas-Alfredo Rodríguez, who in 1990 had done the same after Carlos Sainz left for the WRC.

After 16 years, a canarian team was once again enjoying the triumph. Luis Monzón-Nazer Ghuneim (Ford Escort RS Cosworth) achieved the first place in 1994, a highly celebrated triumph that continued for the next two years. In that case, thanks to the victories of José María Ponce-Gaspar León in 1995 and 1996, with the BMW M3 and Toyota Celica GT-Four, respectively. Precisely, in 1995, the Rally El Corte Inglés achieved the long-awaited promotion to coefficient 20.

Puras and Kit Cars

At the end of the 90s, the Kit Cars and the speed of Jesús Puras with his codrivers Carlos del Barrio and Marc Martí, burst onto the list. The cantabrian won in 1997 (Citroën ZX Kit Car), 1999 and 2000 (Citroën Xsara Kit Car), not being able to repeat in 1998 due to a series of circumstances. That edition was for Gilles Panizzi-Hervé Panizzi. The french couple gave to Peugeot the first victory in this event thanks to the performance of the 306 Maxi Kit Car. This first chapter ends in 2001, the year of the 25th anniversary. Salvador Cañellas-Alberto Sanchis achieved the first position driving a SEAT Córdoba WRC.

Rally de Canarias: heading south

In 2002, the event was renamed as Rally de Canarias. This one and the next, moved the base of operations. It moved from Las Palmas de Gran Canaria to the south of the island and, with it, offered absolutely unprecedented special stages. Jesús Puras-Carlos del Barrio (Citroën Xsara WRC) and Miguel Campos-Carlos Magalhaes (Peugeot 206 WRC) were the most effective in that short moment.

Las Palmas de Gran Canaria regained prominence, and has done so to date. In 2004, the last appointment in the FIA ERC at that time, it coincided with the prominence of the S1600 category. Enrique García-Ojeda-Raquel Fernández and Joan Vinyes-Xavier Lorza, each with Peugeot 206, as well as Miguel Fuster-José V. Medina with Renault Clio, took the measure of this rally. Between 2007 and 2008, again with Fuster-Medina (Abarth Grande Punto S2000) and Luis Monzón-José Carlos Déniz (Peugeot 207 S2000), the rally continued to unfold in the FIA European Rally Cup South-West, where it had been since 2005.

Rally Islas Canarias: a new dimension

The event changes its name again in 2009, the same one that it maintains until now: Rally Islas Canarias. That year, Mitsubishi achieved its first victory thanks to Armide Martín-Alejandro Rodríguez-Lancer Evo IX, but it was in 2010 when the rally entered another dimension.

That year it became part of the Intercontinental Rally Challenge (IRC), which brings vehicles and teams with enormous potential to the Canary Islands. The Skoda Fabia S2000s took the glory until 2012, especially with Jan Kopecky, who shared the codriving with Petr Stary and Pavel Dresler, and Juho Hänninen-Mikko Markkula.

In 2013, the Rally Islas Canarias returns to the FIA European Rally Championship. It will be on time and to see a new triumph for the team Jan Kopecky-Pavel Dresler-Skoda Fabia S2000. Anyway, the sensation of that year came from the hand of Robert Kubica (Citroën DS3 RRC), solid leader until his off-road in the second leg.

A brief parenthesis in 2014 and 2015 served to see the triumph of a world champion: Didier Auriol, next to Denis Giraudet and driving a Citroën Xsara WRC, he got the victory in the first of those years. A year later, Miguel Fuster-Ignacio Aviñó returned Porsche to the top, something that had not happened since 1981.

In 2016, Rally Islas Canarias returned, and still continues to this day, to the FIA ERC. In addition, it did so by consolidating itself as one of the most spectacular events on the calendar. At that stage, Alexey Lukyanuk-Alexey Arnautov, always on a Ford Fiesta R5, clearly dominated for three consecutive editions. They could repeat in 2019, but that year Pepe López-Borja Rozada-Citroën C3 R5 did not miss his chance.

The last of the editions, held in November as the first steps in its history, will be remembered for the health crisis and, above all, for its spectacular development. A real promise like Adrien Fourmaux, accompanied by Renaud Jamoul, took his Ford Fiesta R5 MKII to the top.

Rally Islas Canarias 2020

Fourmaux winner, Lukyanuk champion!

The 44 Rally Islas Canarias closed the FIA European Rally Championship season. It was the fifth round of a contest that started in Italy at the beginning of the summer and, in Gran Canaria, was going to decide the main titles at stake, both internationally, nationally and locally.

The entry list was a true record. About 40 R5 category vehicles and more than 40 international drivers were synonymous with one of the best entries in the history of the Rally Islas Canarias. To this was added the meteorology, which discharged water and left the stages in delicate conditions. The tires choice was key from the first to the last stage.

Adrien Fourmaux, on his first visit to Gran Canaria, was one of the most regular. Although he only won two special stages, he was always in the first positions. Thus, he arrived in Las Palmas de Gran Canaria, in the new venue of the event next to the Estadio de Gran Canaria, with a 25 second advantage over his compatriot Yoann Bonato. The Citroën, which was also attending this rally for the first time, surprised with its performance to the point of placing itself behind the winner's back.

The podium was completed by the first classified spaniard, Iván Ares. With a Hyundai i20 R5, he led the Rally Islas Canarias in its early stages, but some mistakes prevented him from continuing to fight for the first position. Behind him he left a young promise like Oliver Solberg and one of his rivals in the Spanish Championship, José Antonio Suárez. The asturian driver lost the opportunity to be champion in the last moment, when Pepe López added the necessary points to obtain this contest and the Spanish Supercampionship.

Nil Solans could have been in that fight. He won more stages than anyone, but a risky tire choice and two punctures led to chaos and later disqualification.

Andreas Mikkelsen, one of the stars of this edition, was sixth, just ahead of Alexey Lukyanuk. The russian driver, who was unable to drive as fast as usual, achieved enough points to be crowned, for the second time, European Champion.

Callum Devine finished eighth, Mikko Marczyk - winner in the QS - ninth and Luis Monzón tenth. Monzón was the first qualified local driver, which allowed him to be proclaimed champion of Las Palmas

Expected media coverage

Due to its international character, and because it is also eligible for the Spanish Rally Championship, there are many national media that focus on the Rally Islas Canarias.

The main national sports newspapers such as AS and MARCA have special correspondent throughout the three days of the Rally Islas Canarias. Teledporte, the sports thematic channel of the public entity Televisión Española, broadcasts days after its celebration, a summary of the rally.

Televisión Canaria, through the program Todo Rally, will carry out a summary of around an hour and a half that will be broadcast on Sunday, November 21. Regarding regional coverage, all the media are turning to the most important sporting event held in the archipelago. General information newspapers such as La Provincia or Canarias7 make special coverage with many pages throughout the week of the rally.

Radios such as UD Radio (official radio station of the Rally Islas Canarias), Radio Las Palmas, Fórmula Motor, MMRadio Canarias, 7.7 Radio, etc., do special live programming. In addition, there are many digital media such as Motorenlinea.es, Motoradiario.com, Atodomotor.com, Motor2000.net, Motoraldia7.com and Automovilismocanario.com, among many others.

In addition, as in all the events on the FIA European Rally Championship calendar, the Eurosport channel will broadcast every night a summary of around half an hour of each of the two stages of the Rally Islas Canarias.

Facts about Gran Canaria

The ocean currents have been kind to Gran Canaria and have dictated that the climate is mild and pleasant almost all year round. It even has a marvellous climate in Winter when other parts of the continent of Europe are plunged into darkness and cold.

The ocean currents also dictated that the Trade Winds would blow into the Canary islands almost twelve months a year, moist and fresh breezes that create the Azores anti-cyclone and create one of the best climates in Europe creating a permanent Spring in the Archipelago.

The fact that Gran Canaria is mountainous also plays to its advantages in that the Trade Winds mix with the varied altitudes on the island, producing many different microclimates. So, whereas on the coast, above all in the South the climate is dry and sunny, things change quite dramatically when we climb upwards and inwards.

When we reach higher grounds, the sea no longer influences the climate and the mountains reach the clouds, producing enormous changes in temperature between the tepid areas of the mid-hinterlands with their valleys and sub-tropical forests through to the higher reaches. It has even been known for someone to be toasting on the beach and just one hour's drive away for other tourists and locals to be cavorting in the snow on the peaks.

Driving in Gran Canaria

The road laws in Gran Canaria are the same as for the rest of Spain. Motorists can rent a vehicle by presenting their driving license and valid passport / ID, as well as a credit card.

As of January 1, 2021, the licenses issued by the British authorities will enable you to drive in Spain until October 31, 2021, and will not be valid to drive in our country from that moment on.

Handling the GPS while the vehicle is circulating is stipulated as a serious offense and using the mobile phone is totally prohibited, even if the vehicle is parked. To use it, they must park on the shoulder and stay away from traffic.

The speed limit on motorways is 120 km / h, while in towns and cities it is 50 km / h, unless otherwise indicated. Parking in areas with white or yellow lines is prohibited. The blue line indicates a restricted parking lot, where you will have to pay for the ticket at the vending machine. Parking in an area reserved for the disabled is against the law and carries a fine.

Breathalyzer tests are carried out very often and non-residents may be subject to on-site fines. The blood alcohol limit is 0.5 milligrams per milliliter of blood (0.05% alcohol in each sample). For drivers with less than 2 years of license, the limit is 0.01%. Helmets are mandatory to drive motorcycles or mopeds and the use of headphones while riding is strictly prohibited. Cyclists must wear a helmet and the bicycle must have lights to circulate in the dark.

In Gran Canaria you drive on the right, as in continental Europe, and the gearbox is to the left of the car's steering wheel. The use of a seat belt in both the front and rear seats is mandatory. Children under 12 years old cannot ride in the front seats unless they are taller than 150 cm.

Driving through the mountains can be challenging as the winding and narrow roads demand extreme concentration. So be sure to plan your trip in advance. The only fast roads on the island are Highway GC-1 from Las Palmas to Mogán and Highway GC-2 from Las Palmas to Agaete.

INSURANCE

Description of the insurance cover:

According to the existing Regulations in Spain the insurance policy arranged by the Organisers covers the guarantees required by the RFEDA (ASN):

- Liability to third parties, in accordance with Spanish Legislation.
- For personal injury up to a limit of 70 million euros per occurrence
- For property damage up to a limit of 15 million euros per occurrence

The insurance cover will come into effect from Free Practice of QS and will cease at the end of the Event or at the moment of retirement or disqualification. Vehicles taking part at the shakedown will be also covered by this policy.

In case of an accident the competitor or his representative must notify in writing the Clerk of the Course in as short time as possible and a maximum of 24 hours. He must explain the circumstances under which the accident occurred. Likewise he must mention the names and addresses of any witnesses.

Competitors are reminded that only the damage caused by the Organisers and the entered drivers are covered by the insurance policy taken on by the Organisation. Injury to the drivers themselves or damages to participating cars are not covered by this insurance.

Entrants and competitors are free to take on at their own convenience any individual insurance policy that they deem fit, independently from the liability insurance above mentioned.

In case of an accident, competitors and drivers agree to hold harmless and keep indemnified the event's promoters and Organisers against all claims.

The service vehicles, even those bearing special plates issued by the Organisers, may never be considered as official participants in the rally. They are therefore not covered by the insurance policy of the rally and remain the sole responsibility of their owner.
