1 INTRODUCTION AND WELCOME

Welcome to the WRC Vodafone Rally de Portugal, once again held in the northern and central regions of the country, between the 19th and 22nd of May.

Following the success of previous years, and despite all the pandemic context we live in, the 55th edition of the Rally de Portugal, included in one of the main championships in the world of motorsport - World Rally Championship (WRC) - this year with the added attraction of being the event chosen by the FIA and the Promoter to celebrate the 50th edition of the championship, will certainly be the sporting and touristic event which will contribute the most to the positioning of the country as a tourist destination and to the cohesion of the territory.

On the other hand, it will be the first opportunity to see, in a gravel rally, the new Rally1 cars which will use the new hybrid system combining a 100W electric motor with the internal combustion engine working with a new 100 percent sustainable fuel, seeking to create the conditions to enter a new era of cleaner and more sustainable Rallies that will certainly attract more spectators and, in particular, more media.

With its headquarters at Exponor, in Matosinhos, the Automóvel Club de Portugal has, yet again, elected Coimbra as the starting point of the rally, with the traditional Ceremonial Start and, this year, with a Super Special to be run in the city centre.

The image of Portugal abroad is proven to be one of the vectors of excellence of the impact of the WRC Rally of Portugal. As a promoter of the tourist destination, the media value generated by the 2021 edition of the competition exceeded 69.7 million euros of AEV - (Advertising Equivalent Value), according to the study of the University of Algarve in partnership with the University of Minho.

This appreciation results from the international exposure through TV, Print, Web-TV, online and social media image of the event and the North and Centre regions in the various international channels, with emphasis on television exposure to more than 150 countries, namely France, Finland, Belgium, Spain, Japan, Poland, Sweden, Germany, Czech Republic and Bulgaria. In addition to the full coverage of the race, in charge of the promoter of the WRC, the 2022 edition of the Vodafone Rally of Portugal has already secured seven live international television broadcasts during the four days of competition.

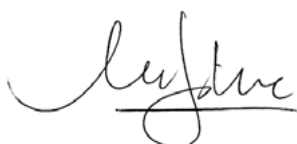

The WRC Vodafone Rally of Portugal scores internationally for the World Rally Championship with the new Rally1 cars, for the WRC2 championship with Rally2 cars and also, like last year's FIA Junior WRC, in Rally4. It also counts for the Portuguese Rally Championship and the Peugeot Rally Cup Iberian, with the Peugeot 208 Rally 4.

A word of appreciation is due to the essential support of the sponsors - Vodafone, BP, Hertz, Skoda, KontraProduções, Turismo do Centro e Turismo do Porto e Norte. Likewise, a recognition is due to the commitment and effort of the Turismo do Centro e Turismo do Porto e Norte, as well as to the municipalities of Amarante, Arganil, Cabeceiras de Basto, Coimbra, Fafe, Felgueiras, Góis, Lousã, Lousada, Matosinhos, Mortágua, Paredes, Porto and Vieira do Minho.

Last but not least, a reference to a very relevant issue to the success of the Rally de Portugal: the safety of the event and, particularly, the safety of spectators. The huge popular enthusiasm stirred by the Rally de Portugal should always be an added value to national sport and tourism. Only with the commitment of all the WRC Vodafone Rally de Portugal will it be crowned with success.

I wish you an excellent Rally

Mário Martins da Silva
Chairman of the Organising Committee

18.2 Accreditation procedure / criteria and deadline

The phase out of the FIA Appendix S, related to the COVID-19 procedures in FIA sanctioned events, results in the return of the usual accreditation processes in place until 2019. However, the recent increase in the pandemic numbers, as well as the recurrent change and implementation of new measures to control it, make it too early to announce a definitive media accreditation procedure.

Therefore and while the pandemic control measures are not fully established, those wishing to cover the Vodafone Rally de Portugal should, until further notice, express their interest to the contacts below:

21 COVID-19

The Automóvel Club de Portugal (ACP), as organizer of Vodafone Rally de Portugal 2022, follows closely all the evolution regarding the COVID-19 pandemic. Due to its impressibility, it is not possible for now to determine all the mitigating measures to apply to our rally. For this reason, the COVID-19 contingency plan will be published as soon as possible, following all the rules determined by Federation Internationale de l'Automobile (FIA) and the Portuguese Health Authorities.
